

READYCAST[®]

WEB CONFERENCING

WHEN COLLABORATION REALLY MATTERS

Is your organization looking for ways to communicate more quickly and efficiently? ReadyCast liberates your workforce from the time and geographical constraints that can limit your ability to get together in person. ReadyCast, powered by WebEx, empowers you to collaborate with customers, partners and colleagues around the world, at any time via web conferencing.

ReadyCast can help you save travel time and expenses, improve productivity and get more work done in a shorter time. If you have a telephone and an Internet connection, you can hold a ReadyCast online meeting—right from your desktop, right now.

Use ReadyCast as often as you'd like- simply pay for what you use.

Why ReadyCast?

- Access all the advanced features of Web conferencing including presentation, application and desktop sharing, remote control, video, chat, recording and more.
- Leverage fully integrated audio conferencing from Premiere Global Services.
- Enjoy unlimited web conferencing with per participant, per minute pricing that allows you to meet as often as you want, for as long as you need.
- Simplify by getting one bill, and having one customer support number for both audio and web conferencing.

READYCAST KEY FEATURES

Share Documents, Applications or Desktops.

Share and control documents, applications and desktops remotely in real time without uploading files to a server. Collaborate on content as you view, annotate and enlarge documents or graphics.
